All Students are Precious and Special

In the midst of the COVID -19 crisis, all schools in Jeollanamdo are working to protect children as they attend in-person classes.

By implementing an active recovery policy for education, we are more focused on children's learning and development.

With our progressive education, we are nurturing students, so they are competent and advanced.

All students are precious, special, and have the right to be happy.

Dear families of Jeollanamdo Education,
Let's join hands and work together for the bright future of our children.

Thank you.

Superintendent of Education for Jeollanamdo,

Suk-ung Jang
